Class A (Restricted) Course

This license allows you to operate a Class B vehicle while towing a trailer that weighs more than 10,001 pounds. Perfect for those who need to drive a combination vehicle like a dump truck pulling a 20-ton trailer with a pintle hook and ring setup. This Class A Restricted CDL opens up new opportunities for your driving capabilities!

What makes this class of license restricted?

This license uses a pintle hook coupling system. (Pintle Hook & Ring) But it still allows you to pull a pintle hook trailer that weighs more than 10,001 pounds. However, you cannot drive a tractor-trailer combination, you will have a restriction on your license. That letter will be an O (The driver cannot operate a class A vehicle with a fifth wheel connection.)

What is Class A Restricted?

This license allows you to operate a combination of vehicles.

- Class A Restricted CDL allows the driver to operate vehicles with a gross vehicle weight rating (GVWR) of more than 26,001 pounds.
- Class A Restricted CDL allows the driver to operate vehicles with a towed unit that has a GVWR of more than 10,001 pounds using a pintle hook coupling system only.
- Class A Restricted CDL allows the driver to operate Class B and C class vehicles.
